

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS30129C1 / H0290

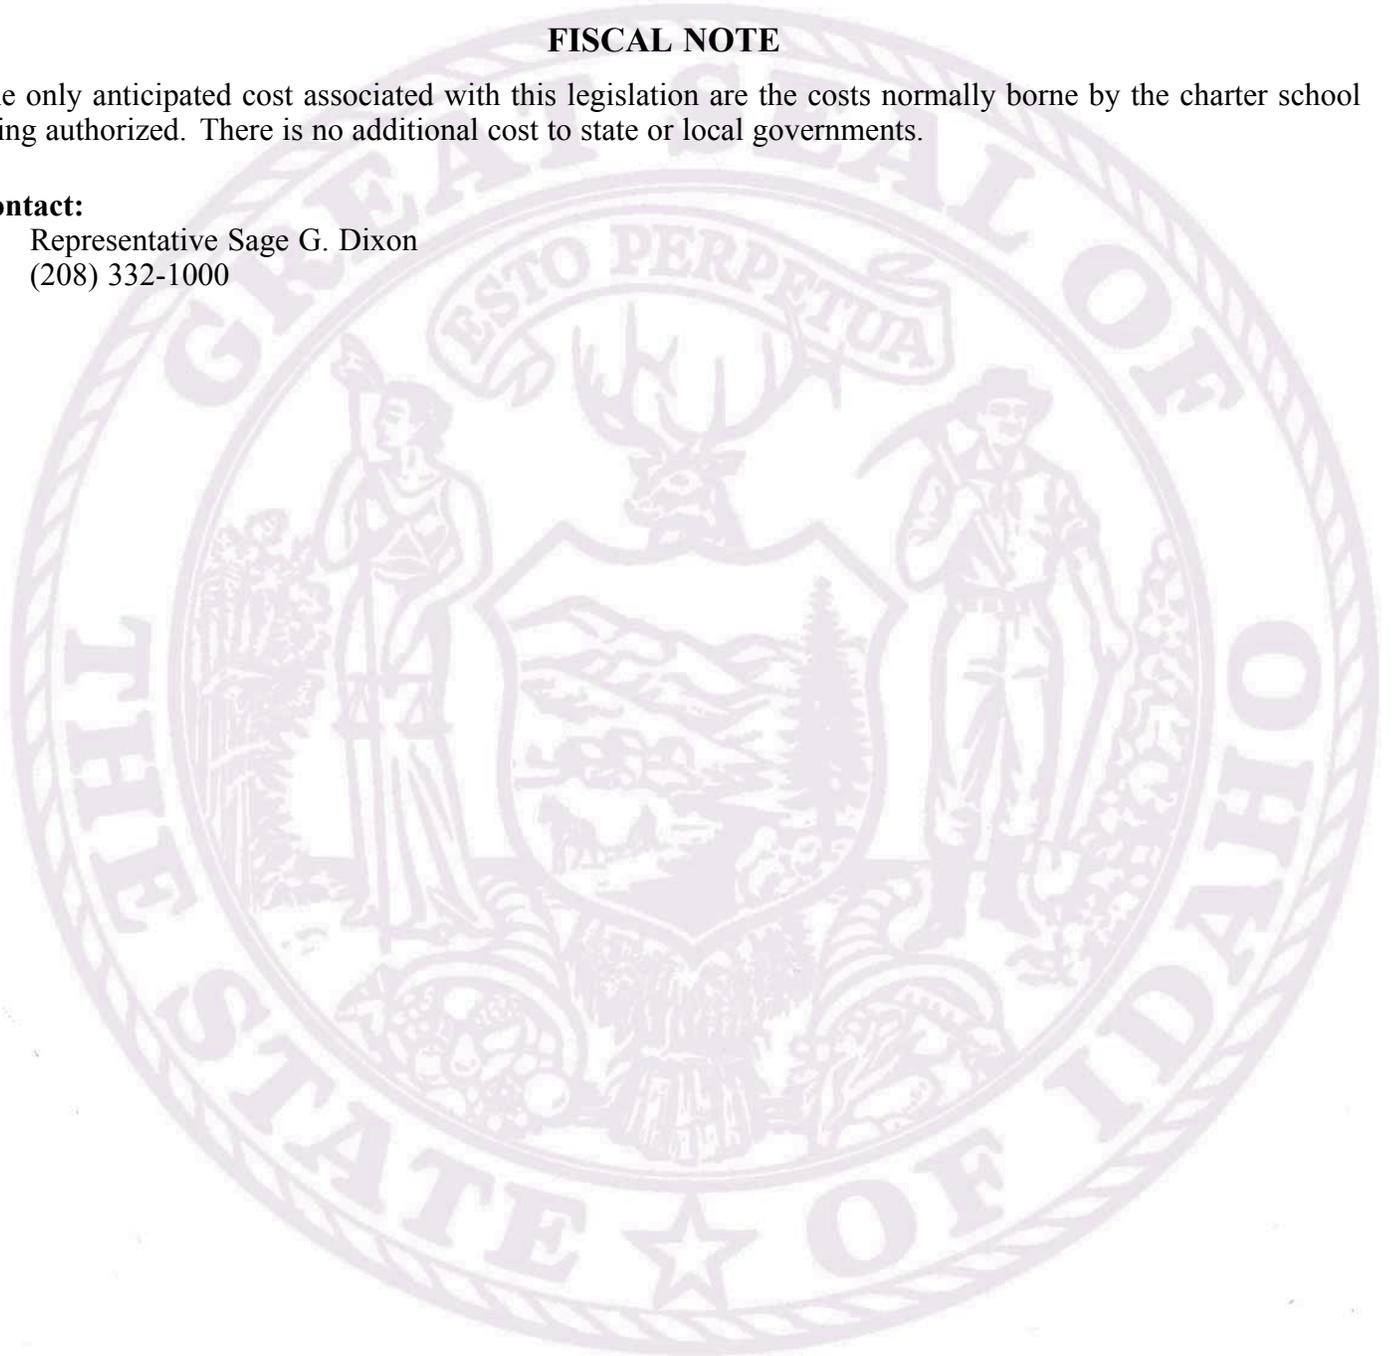

This legislation removes the prohibition on sectarian higher-ed institutions from being an authorized chartering entity for public charter schools. It also clarifies what accreditation requirements a college or university must possess to be an authorized chartering entity for a public charter school.

FISCAL NOTE

The only anticipated cost associated with this legislation are the costs normally borne by the charter school being authorized. There is no additional cost to state or local governments.
